The Children's Cancer Foundation, Inc. (CCF) ACHIEVES ACCREDITATION FROM BBB WISE GIVING ALLIANCE Highlighting Excellence in Leadership, Finances and Mission-Driven Work

Columbia, Maryland- February 16, 2017– By meeting key standards of board oversight, finances, results reporting and fundraising appeals, The Children's Cancer Foundation, Inc. achieved accreditation by the BBB Wise Giving Alliance. This accreditation signifies that The Children's Cancer Foundation, Inc. is deserving of donor trust as they are a well-run nonprofit organization.

"CCF is thrilled to be recognized by BBB for our efforts in investing locally in pediatric cancer treatments and cures", notes CCF President, Dr. Jerrold Chadwick.

The BBB Wise Giving Alliance (BBB WGA) is the nation's only comprehensive charity evaluator, assisting donors in making sound giving decisions. Donors know they can trust a charity if it is accredited by the BBB WGA. Their broad standards go beyond what the law requires and dives deeper than other charity monitoring organizations. Each BBB WGA charity report process involves a rigorous review using 20 holistic BBB Charity Standards, interaction with charity officials about corrective actions needed to address deficiencies, and quality control measures to assure report accuracy. Thousands of charities have reports available to the public at Give.org.

"The public can be assured that every charity evaluation is completed with careful, objective analysis of charity information," says Art Taylor, president and CEO of the BBB Wise Giving Alliance, "By achieving accreditation, The Children's Cancer Foundation, Inc. has earned public trust having demonstrated its commitment to sound governance, transparency and achieving its mission."

Since its founding in 1983, CCF has been committed to investing in treatment and cures for pediatric cancer. Today, CCF continues to support research, programs and facilities engaging in life-saving treatments and identifying cures for pediatric cancer.
